CXI. And be it further enacted, That all Persons so registering themselves as Bankers shall to all Intents and Purposes be considered as Bankers within the Meaning of the Laws now in force in Ireland, and of all Laws which hereafter shall be in force in Ireland, respecting Bankers, in which the contrary shall not be expressly declared.

CXII. And, for the better bearing the Payment of the Stamp Duties on Professions, Administrations and Legacies in Ireland, be it enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, every Person who shall administer the Personal Estate, or any Part of the Personal Estate of any Person dying after the Commencement of this Act, without having proved the Will of the Decedent, or when not Legatee or Administrator of such Person's Estate within Twelve Calendar Months after the Death of the Person so dying (or with respect to Professions having died before the passing of this Act, within six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act), shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Pence, to be recovered and applied in the same manner as any Penalty may by this Act be recovered and applied.

CCVI. And be it enacted, That where any Real Estate shall by any Will be directed to be sold, charged with any Legacy or Legacies, the Perfon or Perfons entitled to sell the same or bound to pay such Legacy or Legacies, and also the Perfon beneficially entitled to such Legacies, or to the Residue or any Parts of the Residue of the Probate Money thereof, shall respectively be held to pay the Stamp Duties which shall then be by Law payable thereon respectively, in the same manner as all respects aforesaid as concerning the Administration of Personal Estate in heretofore provided.

CCVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, or any One or more of them, in respect of every Register or other Office of any Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland, having the Custody or Care of any Wills proved in any such Court, or having the Custody of any Entry or Register of any Administrations granted in any such Court, or Account of all such Wills and Letters of Administrations, together with the Particulars relating thereto, and such Entries from any such Wills as may from necessity to such Commissioners, or Commission, or Payment of such Fees as shall be agreed upon for the same, or any One of any Delegate shall be lent and allowed by the Ecclesiastical Court for the Payment, and every such Office as aforesaid is hereby authorized and required, within One Calendar Month after any such Requisition to be made by the said Commissioners, or any One or more of them, or by any Perfon authorized by them for that Purpose, to make out and deliver such Account as aforesaid, and if any such Register or other Office as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to make out and deliver any such Account as aforesaid, within One Calendar Month after any Demand made as aforesaid, or shall knowingly or wilfully make out and deliver any such Account, every such Register or other Office shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Forty Pounds, to be recovered with Costs of Suit by Information, in the Names of His Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

CCIX. And be it further enacted, That any Gift by any Will or Testamentary Instrument of any Perfon which by virtue of such Will or Testamentary Instrument shall have Effect or be limited out of the Personal Estate of such Perfon so dying, or out of any Personal Estate, which such Perfon shall have Power to dispose of as he or she shall think fit, shall be deemed and taken to be a Legacy within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and of all Acts whereby any Stamp Duty now or shall be imposed, or in anywise relating to the Manage-next or Collection of any Stamp Duty, whether the same shall be given by way of Annuity, or in any other Form, and whether the same shall be charged only on such Personal Estate, or charged also on the Real Estate of the Testator or Testatrix who shall give the same, except in so far as the same shall be paid or satisfied out of such Real Estate in due Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which the same shall be given, and every Gift which shall have Effect as a Donation Mortis Causæ, shall still be deemed a Legacy within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and of all other such Acts as aforesaid.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Annuity or other Benefit shall be given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument in such Terms that the Amount or Value of such Benefit can only be ascertained from time to time by the actual Application for that Purpose of the Fund allotted for such Purpose, or made chargeable therewith, or of the Amount or Value of any Benefit given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument cannot by reason of the Form and manner of the Gift be so ascertained, that the Duty to which the same shall be then subject can be charged thereon, under any of the Directions herein contained, then and in every such case such Duty shall be charged upon the several Payments of such Annuity when and as the same shall be from time to time paid to the Party entitled to the same, and in the manner upon the several Sums of Money or Effects which shall be applied from time to time for the Purpose directed by such Will or Testamentary Instrument, as if such Payments of such Annuity or such several Sums were separate and distinct Legacies or Bequests, and shall be paid by the Party or Parties receiving such Annuity or other Sum of Money, or out of any Fund which may be applicable for such Purpose, or charged with answering the same.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Duty which shall from time to time be payable on a Legacy or Residue or Part of Residue of any Personal Estate given to, or for the Benefit of, or in that the same shall be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession who shall be chargeable at one and the same Rate with the same Duty, which shall then be payable, shall be charged upon and paid out of the Legacy or Residue or Part of Residue legacies, as in the case of a Legacy to one Person; and where any Legacy or Residue or Part of Residue shall be given to or for the Benefit of or in that the same shall be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, some or one of whom shall be then chargeable with no Duty, or some or one of whom shall be chargeable with different Rates of Duty, in that one Rate of Duty cannot be immediately charged thereon, all Persons who under or as consequence of any such Bequest shall be entitled for Life only, or any other temporary Interest, shall be chargeable with the Duty in respect of such Bequest in the same manner as if the annual Proportion thereof had been given by way of Annuity, and each Person respectively shall be so chargeable with such Duty, and the same shall be payable when they shall respectively become entitled to, and begin to receive such Pension, and where any other partial Interest shall be given, or shall arise out of such Property to to be enjoyed in Succession, the Duty on such partial Interest shall be charged and paid in the same manner as if the Duty in heretofore directed to be charged and paid in like case of partial Interests charged on any Property given otherwise than to different Persons in Succession; and all and every Person and Persons who shall become absolutely entitled to any such Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue to be enjoyed in Succession, shall when and as such Person or Persons respectively shall receive the same, or begin to enjoy the Benefit thereof, be chargeable with, and pay the Duty for the same, or such Part thereof as shall be so received, or of which the Benefit shall be so enjoyed, in the same manner as if the same had come to such Person or Persons immediately on the Death of the Person by whom such Property shall have been given to be enjoyed, or in such manner that the same shall be enjoyed in Succession.

Duties on Legacies in Succession here paid.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty which shall from time to time be payable on any Legacy or Residue or Part of Residue to, or to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, upon whom the Duty shall be chargeable at one and the same Rate, shall be deducted and paid by the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument under which the Title thereof shall arise, upon Payment or other Satisfaction or Discharge of every or any Part of such Legacy or Residue or Part of Residue to any Trustee or Trustees, or other Person or Persons to whom the same shall be payable or paid, or Trust or for the Benefit of the Persons so entitled therein in Succession, and of the same shall not be so paid or satisfied to any such Trustee or Trustees, then such Duty shall be deducted and paid out of the Capital of the Property so given, upon Receipt by any of the Persons so entitled in Succession of any Proceeds of such Capital or any Part thereof, according to the Assent of the Capital of which such Proceeds shall be so received; and where the Duty chargeable upon any such Bequest for the Benefit of, or to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, shall be chargeable at different Rates in that the same cannot be paid at one and the same time, but such be paid in Succession as aforesaid, then and in such case all and every the Person and Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument in which such Bequest shall be contained, shall be chargeable with such Duties in Succession in the same manner as such Persons would be chargeable with the like Duties in case of several Bequests, unless the Property bequeathed shall have been paid or otherwise satisfied to or vested in any Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid, in which case such Trustee or Trustees, or his, her or their Representatives shall be chargeable with the Duties then payable for or in respect of such Property to be so held, but or then respectively, in such way the same manner as if he, she or they had taken the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which such Bequest shall have been made; and in like manner where any partial Interest shall be given or shall arise out of any such Property to to be enjoyed in Succession, and such partial Interest shall be granted or paid by the Person or Persons so enjoying such Property, such Person or Persons shall be chargeable with the Duties then payable for and in respect of such partial Interest, and shall retain and pay the same accordingly in such and the same manner as if he, she or they had taken the Burthen of the execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which such partial Interest shall have been created; and in all such case the Person or Persons so chargeable with Duty shall be Debtors to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in like manner, and shall be subject to the like Penalties as the Person or Persons having or taking the Execution of such Will or Testamentary Instrument shall from time to time be chargeable and subject to.

CCXIII. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That, notwithstanding the contrary shall be expressly enacted, no Duty shall at any time be paid on any Articles of Plate, Furniture or other Things not yielding any Income, and given to or for the Benefit of or for as that the same be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, whilst the same shall be so enjoyed in Kind only by any Person or Persons not bearing any Power of selling or disposing thereof in as to convert the same into Money or any other Property yielding no Income, but if the same shall be actually sold or disposed of, or shall come to any Person or Persons having Power to sell or dispose thereof, or having an absolute Interest therein, then and in such and every such case the same Duty shall be chargeable and paid thereon, as if the same had been originally given absolutely and with full Power to sell or dispose thereof, and shall be chargeable upon and paid by the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be sold, or who shall have Power to sell or dispose thereof or any absolute Interest therein, and shall become the Debt of such Person or Persons, but shall not be a Charge on any Person or Persons by reason of his, her or their having assigned to such Bequest as the Person or Persons having or taking the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which such Bequest shall have been made.

CCXIV. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That where any Legacy or any Residue or Part of Residue shall be given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument that different Persons shall become entitled thereto in Succession, the Duty shall be charged thereon as given to be enjoyed in Succession, whether the Person or Persons entitled thereto shall take the same under or by virtue of such Will or Testamentary Instrument, and the Dispositions therein contained, or in Default of such Dispositions, and as entitled by Intestacy.

CCXV. And he is further enacted, That where at any time any Legacy or Residue or Part of Residue shall be given to or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons in Joint Tenancy, lease or one of whom shall be then chargeable with any Stamp Duty, and some or one of whom shall not be so chargeable, the Person or Persons chargeable with such Duty shall pay such Duty in Proportion to the Several of such Person or Persons respectively in such Bequest; and if any Person or Persons to be chargeable with such Duty, and entitled in Joint Tenancy as aforesaid, shall become entitled by Survivorship, or by Severance of the Joint Tenancy, as any larger Interest in the Property bequeathed than that in respect of which such Duty shall have been paid, then and in such case all and every such Person or Persons to become entitled by Survivorship, or by Severance, shall be charged with the same Duty as if the Property which such Joint Tenancy or Joint Tenants shall so become entitled to had been originally given to or for the Benefit of such Person or Persons only.

CCXVI. And he is further enacted, That when any Legacy or any Residue, or Part of Residue, shall be given, (subject to any Contingency which may defeat such Gift, and whereupon the same may go to some other Person or Persons, such Bequest (unless chargeable as an Annuity under the Provisions herein contained) shall be charged with Duty as an absolute Bequest to the Person or Persons who shall take the same, subject to such Contingency, and such Duty shall be paid out of the Capital of such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, notwithstanding the same may upon such Contingency go to some Person not chargeable with the same Duty, or with any Duty; and if such Contingency shall afterwards happen, and the Property be bequeathed shall thereupon go in such manner that the same, if taken immediately after the Death of the Testator or Testatrix under the same Title, would have been chargeable with a higher Rate of Duty than the Duty so paid, the Person or Persons becoming entitled thereto shall be charged with and shall pay the Difference between the Duty so paid and such higher Rate of Duty.

CCXVII. And he is further enacted, That where any Legacy or the Residue or any Part of the Residue of any Personal Estate shall be subject to any Power of Appointment to or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons specially named or described as Objects of such Power, such Property shall be chargeable with Duty as Property given to different Persons in Succession, and so in charging such Duty not only the Person and Persons who shall take preference as Object to such Power of Appointment, but also any Person and Persons who shall take under or in Default of any such Appointment when and as they shall take respectively, shall, in respect of their several Interests whether preference or subject to or under or in Default of such Appointment, be charged with the same Duty, and in the same manner, as if the same Interests had been given to him, her or them respectively, and by the Will or Testamentary Disposition conferring such Power, in the same Order and Course of Succession as shall take place under and by virtue of such Power of Appointment, or in Default of Exercise thereof, as the case may happen to be; and where any Property shall be given for any limited Interest, and a general and absolute Power of Appointment shall also be given to any Person or Persons to whom the Property would not belong, in Default of such Appointment, such Property upon the Execution of such Power shall be charged with the same Duty, and in the same manner as if the same Property had been immediately given to the Person or Persons having and executing such Power, after allowing any Duty before paid in respect thereof; and where any Property shall be given with any such general Power of Appointment, which Property in Default will belong to the Person or Persons to whom such Power shall also be given, such Property shall be charged with and shall pay the Duty in the same manner as if such Property had been given to such Person or Persons absolutely in the full Intestate without such Power of Appointment.

CCXVIII. And he is further enacted, That any Sum of Money or Personal Estate directed to be applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, shall be charged with and pay Duty as Personal Estate, unless the same shall be given to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, and then such Person entitled thereto in Succession shall pay Duty for the same in the same manner as if the same had not been directed to be applied in the

An Act to enable the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to regulate the Price of Coals to be bought for the Service of the Poor of the City of Dublin. [18th July 1812.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Kings, entitled An Act to prevent the excessive Price of Coals in the City of Dublin, it was, amongst other things, enacted, That One or more Yards or Yards should be taken at the Expense of the Public, for the Purpose of laying in a sufficient Quantity of Coals for supplying the Journeymen, Tradesmen and Manufacturers, and the Poor of the City of Dublin, with Coals, in the manner and subject to the Regulations and Provisions thereunto contained; and that the said Coals should be bought in at the public Expense, and when Coals should be under Sixteen Shillings the Ton: And whereas the Price of Coals in the City of Dublin has not for several Years last past been so low as Sixteen Shillings by the Ton: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Director or Superintendent of the Coal Yard from time to time, and at all times, to buy Coals for the Supply of every or any such Coal Yards, in manner as the said Act mentioned, at any Price or Prices that shall be approved of by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being; such Approbation to be signified in Writing to such Director or Superintendent, previous to every such Purchase, by the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence by the Under Secretary for the Coal Department, and that such Coals shall and may be afterwards sold in manner and under and subject to the Regulations in the said Act mentioned.

II. And whereas since the Enactment of the Price of Coals many large Quantities of Coals have from time to time been purchased for the Use of such Coal Yards, at Prices exceeding the Rate fixed by Law as aforesaid, and where such Purchases were lawfully made it is reasonable that the Parties concerned should not suffer thereby: Be it therefore enacted, That whenever the Commissioners of Imprest Accounts in Ireland shall be of Opinion that any such Purchases hath been lawfully and lawfully made for the public Benefit, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required to allow the same in Account, and to debit the Price paid for such Coals as just and fair Discharge for and on Behalf of the Director or Superintendent of such Coal Yards, or of any other Person or Persons who so paid the same respectively.

II. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That, for the preventing of Breach on Toll Collectors, by Carts or Waggon going empty, or loaded only with Implements necessary for the more convenient Carriage of, or for loading or unloading Messes, through Turnpike-Gates, under Pretence of going for such Messes, the Owner or Driver of every empty Waggon, Cart or Carriage, claiming the Exemption hereby extended, any or either of them, shall in all such case pay the Toll in respect of such Waggon, Cart or Carriage, before the same shall be permitted to pass through such Turnpike-Gate, and that the Collector of such Toll shall thereupon deliver to such Owner or Driver a Ticket, to be received: Messes, Compost, with the Name of the Gate and the Date when delivered, and the Amount of the Toll so paid; all which shall and XXXV. And whereas under former Acts, Creditors have been put to great Expence and Trouble in attending every Session and Adjournment during the whole Continuance of this Act, to oppose the Discharge of Debtors clearly excluded from any Benefit under the said respective Acts, but who, having been before the Session and before a Discharge, to demand their Creditors, constantly gave forth Notices for each subsequent Session and Adjournment of their intended Application to be discharged, to remedy which, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all cases where the Determination of the Justices in Session or Adjournment shall be final to all Issues and Protests, unless otherwise ordered and commanded by His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Freedom, by His Majesty's Writ of Mandamus to be issued forth of the said Court, unless the Debtor shall, during the Continuance of this Act, get rid of the Objections or Objections for which they refused his Discharge; and that the same may be clear and certain, the Justices are hereby required to state the Objections why such Debtor's Discharge is refused by them, and in all cases whatever it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices at some one subsequent Session or Adjourned Session, within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months after he shall have been so committed, upon Application from such Debtor, and due Proof on Oath made to them by Two or more credible Witnesses (which Oath they are hereby empowered to administer) of such Objections or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice served in last Twenty Days previous to such Application on the Creditor or Creditors who before opposed his Discharge, and of Notice likewise intimated in the Public Gazette in manner before directed by this Act, to order such Debtor to be once more, but only one time more, brought before them, and if no other Objection or Objections shall then be made to the Discharge of such Debtor by any Creditor or Creditors, or being made, the same shall be over-ruled by the Justices then present, and they shall then be of Opinion the said Debtor is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, to enjoy the same as he or she is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, and to order him or her to be discharged, he or she taking the Oath, and in all other respects conforming to the Direction of this Act.

XXXVI. And whereas it may happen that several Persons who may claim and be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, are listed on an Estate that is here to be sold, Transferred or Mortgaged, which Estate, with the Residue of the same, is to be sold, either by Law Power or otherwise, or by leaving a Place or Places falling to a Common Recovery or Common Recovery, whereby such Person or Persons and their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, would be liable to the Payment of such Debts, and be delivered up according to the Terms of this Act for the Benefit of their Creditors; be it therefore further enacted, That in every such case, such Person or Persons is to be sold as aforesaid, and who shall be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act, that, so all Issues and Protests shall be as in Law, be deemed to be taken, and it is and shall be hereby declared to be the Will of such Lords, Trustees and Mortgagors in this, and the same shall be delivered up to such Creditor or Creditors of every such Person, in the same manner maner as if such Parties or Persons had actually levied a Fine, suffered a Common Recovery or Recovery, and thereby had become liable to Fees; any Law or Constitution of Law to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful at all times hereafter for any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any Debtor or Debtors who shall be chosen in pursuance of this Act, by and with the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Debtor or Debtors who shall be present at a Meeting, to be had on Tuesday next Day's Notice being previously given for the Purpose hereafter mentioned, if in Custody at Debtors or in the County of Debtors, in the Dublin Gaol, and if in any other Place in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, then also in some Newspaper which shall be published in the County, City or Place or near which such Parties or Persons shall have been in Gaol, to make Compositions to any Parties or Persons or Accountants to such Debtor or Debtors, where the same shall appear necessary or reasonable, and to take such reasonable Part of any such Debt as can upon any Discharge or Discharge between such Assignee or Assignees, and any Parties or Persons for or on account or by reason or means of any Matter, Cause or Thing relating to the Estate or Effects of such Debtor or Debtors, or to any Debt or Debts due or claimed to be due to or from such Debtor or Debtors, to the said End and Intention of Satisfaction to be chosen by the said Assignee or Assignees, and the major Part in Value of his Creditors, and the Party or Parties with whom they shall have such Differences, and to perform the Award of such Arbitrators, or of any Umpire to be chosen by them, or otherwise to settle and agree the Matters in Difference and Dispute between them, in such manner as the said Assignee or Assignees with such Consent as aforesaid shall think fit and can agree, and the same shall be binding to all the Creditors of such Debtor or Debtors; and every such Assignee or Assignees to and are hereby authorized for what they shall think fit in the Premises in pursuance of this Act.

XI. And whereas Provision ought to be made as to what should become of the Estate and Effects of any Debtor or Debtors not put by, satisfied or recovered by, any Assignee or Assignees chosen pursuant to the Direction of the several Acts, at the time of his or their Death or Death, and whose Heir or Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assignees refuse to sell or mortgage therein; to remedy which, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Creditors of every such Debtor or Debtors to elect a new Assignee or Assignees in manner and Form as herebefore is directed, and to obtain a new Assignment from the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace pursuant to the Order of the Justices, and which said Order the said Justices are hereby empowered and authorized to do as if on due Proof on Oath being made to them of the Death of such former Assignee or Assignees, and Refusal of his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assignees, to sell or mortgage (herein) and if the said Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, is hereby empowered to obey the same, and execute such Assignments accordingly, in manner and Form, as if XLII. And, to the Intent and Purpose that the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors as shall be discharged by virtue of this Act may be duly and lawfully applied for the Benefit of his, her or their real Creditors, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Courts at Sessions, and the Courts of limited Jurisdiction in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, from whence any Process shall issue which are such Debtor or Debtors was or were committed, or where the Process issued of any other County, to and for the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer in England, or any One of them, from time to time, upon the Petition of any such Debtor, or the Creditor or Creditors of such Debtor, complainant of any Insolvency, Fraud, Mismanagement or other Misdemeanor of any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any such Debtor or Debtors, so far as all Parties concerned, and upon having the Parties concerned therein to make and give such Orders and Directions therein, either for the Removal or Discharge of such Assignee or Assignees, and appointing any new Assignee or Assignees in the Place or Stead of such Assignee or Assignees to be removed or displaced, and for the conduct, full and equitable Management or Distribution of the Estate and Effects of any such Debtor for the Benefit of the respective Creditors; as the said Courts and Judges respectively shall think fit; and in case of the Removal or displacing of any Assignee or Assignees, and the appointing of any new Assignee or Assignees, the Estate or Effects of such Debtor or Debtors shall from thenceforth be directed out of the Assignee or Assignees to be removed or displaced, and be applied in and delivered over to such new Assignee or Assignees, in the same manner and for the same Intent and Purpose as the same were before vested in the Assignee or Assignees first chosen as aforesaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all cases where mutual Credits both have been given between any Debtor who shall be discharged in pursuance of this Act, and any other Person or Persons, or Bodies Corporate or Politic, before the Delivery of such Schedule or Inventory of the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors, upon Oath as aforesaid, the respective Assignee or Assignees of such Debtor or Debtors so and are hereby authorized and required, as he and their Parts, so far as and allow an Account between them and the other Party or Parties concerned, and nothing more shall be demanded to be settled in such Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, as the Estate or Effects of such Debtor or Debtors, than what shall appear to be justly due to him, her or them respectively, as and for the Balance of such Account when truly due.

Credit of an Account, intitled Account of Securities purchased with Sums hereof arising from Securities, carried to an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Debtors of the High Court of Chancery: And whereas by the said last mentioned Act it was, among other things, enacted, that out of the Cash belonging to the Deans of the said Court of Chancery, which then lay or which should the same be paid and unemployed in the Bank of England, a Sum not exceeding Two hundred thousand Pounds should and might, by virtue of an Order or Orders of the said Court, be made for that Purpose from time to time to be placed out in one entire Sum or in Parts, in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court of Chancery, according to the General Rules and Orders of the said Court, or such Government or Parliamentary Securities as in and by such Order should be directed, so the Interest that the said principal and annual Proceeds arising from the Money so to Common and General Cash in the Bank of England, belonging to the Debtors of the said Court, for the Use of the said Debtors, by applying the Interest arising therefrom for improving the Charges of the Office of the Accountant General of the said Court: And by another Act passed in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to improve the High Court of Chancery to lay out, upon proper Securities, a further Sum of Money not exceeding a Sum therein limited, out of the Common and General Cash in the Bank of England, belonging to the Debtors of the said Court, and for in the Bank of England, belonging to the Debtors of the said Court, and to apply the Interest arising therefrom towards improving the Charges of the Office of the Accountant General of the said Court: And by the aforesaid mentioned Acts of the Thirtieth and Forty Sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of several Orders of the High Court of Chancery made in pursuance of the said several Acts, the present Clerks in the Office of the said Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, have and receive, out of the Interest and Dividends of the Government or Parliamentary
